REMARKS

This booklet was put together within the last two or three days, and in between many business pressures. There are bound to be a few mistakes. Please let me know about them so that they can be corrected. I want to express my appreciation to everyone who helped by furnishing information for the booklet. It has been a joy to talk with most of you on the telephone and to renew friendships of long ago. This is a very special day for our class, one we will remember in years to come.

We appreciate your efforts in traveling to Kendallville for our Reunion; we hope you will feel that it was worth the effort.

A special thanks goes to my husband, Arvill, and to our two daughters, LuReign and Anita, who helped with the computer work, decorations, gifts, etc., and to my sister, Alice (Strong) Hose, who came over and helped collate the booklets. I appreciate all of the help I have received!

St Balletian

Dear SJHS Class of 1945, Spouses, Faculty, Friends, & Families of Deceased Classmates:

Greetings to all of you! First, I want to say that we had a wonderful 50-Year Reunion on July 12, with 33 persons in attendance. I thought we had a great turn-out. I am thankful that so many of you were able to come, and I appreciate your making the effort to come—especially in such hot weather! I'm sorry that some of you were unable to attend. I am enclosing a copy of the article and classmates picture which I sent to the Auburn Evening Star two weeks ago. I was sorry that we didn't take the pictures sooner, so that Donald Gall and Wayne Warstler would have been in the classmates picture. Enclosed are copies of some of the pictures which we took; also, I met Frances (Miller) Friedt in Ft. Wayne Friday, and she loaned me the pictures she took, including the panoramas.

Next, I want to express my appreciation to all of you, including the families of deceased classmates, who furnished information for the booklet. It was really a blessing to me to have little visits with you and to renew the friendships we have shared through all of the years.

Thanks, too, for the money ($61) you collected and gave to us at the Reunion, to help with the telephone and postage expense. We appreciated your thoughtful gesture.

Then I want to apologize to Rosemary Means (again!) for omitting her biographical write-up. I am enclosing her write-up, along with an expanded write-up for Gloria Shaffer. I talked to Gloria last week and was able to get a little more information about her. The letter we sent, which contained the announcement about the Reunion, has never reached her, so she didn't even know about it. The next time she comes to Indiana, she hopes we'll be able to get a group together for a good visit. She won't be coming out for the St. Joe School Reunion in Sept., as her son and family from Dayton, will be visiting her at that time.

We are punching the updated pages for the booklet (Classmate Statistics, Rosemary and Gloria's sketches, and the Address Directory), in case you might like to put them in your booklet. In the booklets which we will be mailing to those who could not attend, and to families of deceased classmates, we are binding the corrected sheets and other enclosures into their booklets.

There were only a few additions and changes in the Directory—Beverly to Beverley Davis; Donald Gall's wife's name is Dorothy; Paul "Gene" Hadley's birthdate is Sept. 2, 1927; Calvin Hull's address is 614 E. Hill, instead of 615 E. Hill; Bill Monroe's wife's name is Betty; Wayne Warstler's wife's name is Joan; and Leo Westrick's phone no. is 812-663-6072. In the biographical section, Donald Gall's middle name is Eugene instead of Earl. You may want to make that change in that section. Also, Blaine Warstler forgot to mention to me that he played bass guitar in the Warstler Brothers Band for about 20 years. I learned this from Vereda after the Reunion, when I called to ask for some other information. Let me know if there are other corrections and/or additions. Also, I would still like to have obituaries of our deceased class members. I have short ones for Art Culbertson, Bob Rosenbury, and Junior Burns. I can't locate the one I had for April (Bowser) Davis.

On Aug. 5th I saw Carol (Rosenbury) Culbertson Smalley at Richards Restaurant in Auburn. I happened to have a booklet with me, so gave it to her. Her address and phone: 1351 Meadowbrook Rd., N. E., Palm Bay, FL 32905; 407-725-6507. It was so good to see her again. She is in good health at present. She was having lunch with Art's mother, and a friend from Florida.

It was my plan to have time to share memories of our school years. I should have used the time before the food was served, to get some items taken care of, so we would have had more time for that. SO, let's plan on that the next time! What about next July again? If Jean, Rosemary, and Gloria will let us know if and when they will be in the area, let's get together. O.K.? Expect to hear from me in 1996.

With sincere best wishes, June (Strong) Brown & Helpers

GOOD THINGS DO HAPPEN WHEN YOU GROW OLDER: YOUR MENTAL HEALTH IMPROVES!

Studies by Dartmouth Medical School psychiatry professor George Vaillant, M.D., show that our psychological defense mechanisms that develop ways of coping with difficult feelings become healthier as we grow older. When we are young, we protect ourselves from such feelings with strategies like denial and impulsive acting-out. By middle age, we rely far more on constructive defenses like humor, altruism, and creativity.

YOU KNOW YOU'RE GETTING OLD WHEN...

Everything hurts and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work.

Your knees buckle, and your belt won't.

You sit down in a rocking chair and can't get it started.

You look forward to spending a quiet evening at home.

Your back goes out more often than you do.

You know all the answers, but nobody asks you the questions.

You turned 39 before Jack Benny.

Your little black book has only names ending in M. D.

You need oxygen after blowing out your birthday candles.

You finally get it all together and can't remember where you put it.

You start eating bran flakes and prune juice for breakfast.

You remember today that your birthday was yesterday.

You get worn out dialing long distance.

You buy a health club membership and don't go.

Your favorite newspaper column is "25 years ago today."

You don't need an alarm clock to get up at 6:00 a.m.

You need a fire permit to light all the candles on your birthday cake.

A fortune teller wants to read your face.

You burn the midnight oil by 9:00 p.m.

You get your exercise being a pallbearer for your friends who exercised.

Anything under a quarter isn't worth bending over to pick up.

The little old lady you help across the street is your wife.

The only whistles you get are from the teakettle.

You sink your teeth into a thick, juicy steak and they stay there.

Your favorite TV personalities are Sid Caesar, Milton Berle, and Lucille Ball.

You need a smaller house with a larger medicine cabinet.

Work becomes more fun and fun becomes more work.

Your children begin to look middle-aged.

You finally get to the top of the ladder, but it's leaning against the wrong wall.

WE KNOW WE'RE GETTING OLDER WHEN...

Our birthday candles stand for decades instead of years,
And we start to look like our driver's license photos...
We run out of places to store stuff
And wish we'd hung on to the Seven Dwarves jelly glasses instead of the National Geographics...

We know we're getting older when...

We avoid all-you-can-eat restaurants

Because we can't eat all we can eat...

Stop drinking liquids before bedtime,

And consider flannel sheets more luxurious than black satin...

We have to admit that old movie we thought was so sexy is really corny and feel smug because

The "KIDS" can't jitterbug worth a cent...

We know we're getting old when...
We read articles on dietary fiber and capital preservation,
Go through the alphabet a lot trying to recall names,
And hope to goodness our empty nest never fills up again...
Our idea of a swell party is one that includes dinner
And gets us home by ten...

We know we're getting older when...

"You're only young once"

No longer applies as an excuse for ordering a large,
double-cheese pizza,

We study the labels at the supermarket
looking for unhealthy ingredients,
And "Life in the fast lane"
is going through the check-out with eight items or less...

We know we're getting older when...
Our concept of "OLD" keeps getting older,
And we find that being able to laugh at ourselves is what keeps us young!

Members of the St. Joe High School Class of 1945, who had attended during the years 1941-45, held a 50-Year Reunion at Olympic Flame Restaurant, in Kendallville, the afternoon of July 12.
